

AiraCarb™ Odor Control System

The AiraCarb treatment system utilizes an activated carbon process, designed to meet the needs of your application while achieving the highest level of odor removal. Multiple medias are available to best meet your specific application and treatment objectives.

Advantages

- Customizable to your application
- Cost-effective designs
- Simple operation
- Proven technologies
- Pre-packaged, skid-mounted systems available

Applications

- Municipal odor control
- Industrial air treatment

